Grant Guidelines

- The applying agency must have and submit a copy of their 501(c)(3) status from the IRS.
- The agency must serve in one or more of the following counties:
 - *Ohio—Adams, Brown, Butler, Clermont, Hamilton, Warren
 - *Kentucky—Boone, Campbell, Kenton
 - *Indiana—Dearborn
- Impact 100 accepts grant applications that are programmatic, endowment, capital, start-up, or research oriented.
- Impact 100 does NOT accept grant applications that are for operating, partisan, individual churches, indigent care subsidy, travel, loans, or individuals.

Grant Application

- Impact 100 uses the Greater Cincinnati Common Grant Application.
 - Impact 100 has a copy of the grant application on its web site (under the “Apply for a Grant” section) in both a PDF and Word format.
 - Because each agency knows the needs of its clients best, each agency MUST select which of the five Grant Review Committees it would like to be evaluated under:
 - *Culture
 - *Education
 - *Environment, Preservation and Recreation
 - *Family
 - *Health and Wellness
- Don't forget to SELECT your Grant Review Committee above!
- Send electronic submission to Grants@Impact100.org
 - Impact 100 does not provide any grant application feedback except through information offered at this meeting and in the FAQ section of our website.
